NOTES ABOUT THE BUDGET

*Since much of what goes into a Fun Pack needs to be ordered in advance we do require that you make a minimum order of 100 for each title so we have enough supplies on hand. We can work with you as we near your event to make sure we neither overbuild nor run out.
OTHER

GE requires all marketing and promotions tools be sent to GE for proof/approval prior to dissemination. GE will provide (gratis) images of the correct and approved movie posters/titles for use in your marketing, as well as descriptions of the events for your website, flyers, etc., upon request.

The Host will require a secure, private, well-lit dressing area with access to a mirror and restroom.

The Host will require a hand held, wireless microphone before, during, and after the movie. The mic needs to be independent of the movie sound playback so the host can use the mic during the movie without needing someone in the booth to bring the level up/down. If no such system exists in your venue, GE can provide a portable sound system for additional cost.

The Presenter (City of Menlo Park) will provide a lighting technician to bring the house lights up to mid and take them out throughout the event so guests can see in-movie antics by the Host and audience.

The Presenter will provide dedicated space in the lobby/entryway for the Fun Pack distribution (a table or rack will be provided by Presenter).

One accessible seat plus one companion seat will be provided for Guggenheim Entertainment.
