COMMISSION AND COMMITTEE APPLICANTS

Menlo Park welcomes and encourages residents' active participation through serving on a City-appointed Commission or Committee. Commissions examine issues of community interest and make recommendations to the City Council on policy matters. Each commission reviews specific subjects and carries out assignments as directed by the City Council or as prescribed by law. Each Commission establishes an annual work plan that is in line with the City Council's goals, which guides the commissions' activities and projects.

The City of Menlo Park currently has nine active advisory bodies, including:

Commissions

- Complete Streets Commission
- Environmental Quality Commission
- Housing Commission
- Library Commission
- Parks and Recreation Commission
- Planning Commission

Committees/others

- Finance and Audit Committee
- Sister City Committee
- Transportation Master Plan Oversight and Outreach Committee

TERMS

Terms for members of most commissions/committees are four years. Members are limited to two consecutive full terms. If a person is appointed to fill an unexpired term and serves less than two years, that time will not be considered a full term. However, if a person is appointed to fill an unexpired term and serves two years or more, that time will be considered a full term.

A roster of all current members of city commissions, boards and committees and the dates of their terms of office and any current vacancies. This list is updated each year in compliance with the requirements of the Maddy Act, Government Code 54970.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Serving on a commission or committee may require one or two night meetings per month, with each meeting averaging three to four hours. You may also be asked to serve on additional subcommittees. Members are expected to attend all meetings. Attendance at less than two-thirds of scheduled meetings may result in removal by the City Council. Commissioners are not paid for their volunteer service. General information related to the charge of the commissions and committees and their schedules are shown on the website menlopark.org/commissions. More specific information may be obtained by contacting the staff liaison.

APPOINTMENT PROCESS

The application process may take from six weeks to two months. Vacancies are advertised for approximately 30 days with a specific filing deadline. Deadlines may be extended. Please return your application, along with any attachments, to the City Clerk, at the address listed below. Applications are kept on file for one year. The City Council will review all applications, may contact you individually or may decide to hold interviews. All appointments will be made by nomination and vote of the City Council at a City Council meeting. Questions about the application process should be directed to City Clerk's Office at 650-330-6620.
